

Frequent asked questions

Admissions requirements.

- 1. Did I have to take the EXADEP ?
Yes, this an admission requirement.
- 2. Did you take on account the GRE ?
No, we only accept the EXADEP.
- 3. If I have less than 500 points on the EXADEP, can I apply for admission?
No, you need a minimum of 500 to your application be considered for admission.
- 4. If my GPA is less than 3.00 points in a scale of 4.00 points, can I apply for admission?
No, you need a minimum of 3.00 points to your application be considered for admission.
- 5. If my specific index is less than 2.8 in a scale of 4 points, should I apply for admission?
No, you need a minimum of 2.80 points to your application be considered for admission.
- 6. If I repeat a prerequisite course what grade you will take to calculate my IGS?
We will count the best grade for that prerequisite.
- 7. At the time to do the registration do I have to accomplish with all prerequisites?
Yes, all prerequisite have to be accomplish before the registration date.
- 8. If I have a baccalaureate in Physical Therapy can I apply for your DPT?
No, this is an entry level doctoral program.
- 9. If I obtain my baccalaureate from an university outside USA or its territories can I apply for your DPT?
Yes, but you need to present evidence of that your studies are equivalent to a baccalaureate in the USA education system. There are private companies in USA that you can hire to do this work.
- 10. I' m a physical therapist assistant, do I have to complete the 30 hours of shadowing/observation?
Yes you have to complete with the 30 hours of shadowing/observation with a licensed physical therapist.
- 11. Can I do the observation/shadowing hour with a physiatrist, a chiropractic or a physical therapy assistant?
No, these hours have to be done with a licensed physical therapist.

Interview Process

- 1. How are students selected for the interview?

2. When are interviews done?

Interviews are expected to be conducted on early April of each academic year.

3. Can the interview be made on line or by telephone?

No, the interviews have to be in person.

4. How should I dress for the interview?

You should wear professional attire.

5. If I cannot assist to the program interview, can I be interviewed in another date?

No, interviews are conducted only during one day.

6. If I don't get on time for the program interview, shall I be interviewed with the next group?

Interviews follow a systematical schedule. If get late to your appointment the Program did not have the obligation to schedule a new appointment.

Semester

1. When first year semester begin?

It begins early July of each academic year.